

Attached: Chronological list of key dates

ANNEX

Jabing Kho – Chronological List of Key Dates

Date	Event
17 February 2008	Jabing, together with an accomplice, assaulted two construction workers in order to rob them. In the course of the robbery, Jabing struck one of the construction workers a number of times on the head with a piece of wood. The construction worker suffered 14 fractures to the skull with severe haemorrhage in three areas. He succumbed to his injuries and died on 23 February 2008.
30 July 2010	Jabing was convicted of murder and sentenced to death.
24 May 2011	The Court of Appeal dismissed his appeal against conviction.
5 December 2011	Jabing submitted a clemency petition through his counsel.
1 January 2013	Amendments to the Penal Code for murder came into force. Jabing subsequently applied to be re-sentenced.
14 August 2013	High Court re-sentenced Jabing to life imprisonment and 24 strokes of the cane. The Prosecution subsequently appealed this decision.
14 January 2015	The Court of Appeal allowed the Prosecution's appeal and imposed the death penalty on Jabing.
24 April 2015	Jabing submitted a second clemency petition through his counsel.
15 May 2015	Jabing submitted an addendum to the second petition through his counsel.
27 May 2015	His family members submitted a petition for clemency.
19 October 2015	Clemency petitions rejected by the President. Both Jabing and petitioners were informed of the outcome.
4 November 2015	Jabing applied to the Court of Appeal to review its earlier decision, before his scheduled execution on 6 Nov 2015.
5 November	Court of Appeal issued a stay of execution.

2015
5 April 2016	Court of Appeal dismissed the application. Stay of execution was lifted.
18 May 2016	Jabing filed a criminal motion to the Court of Appeal for a stay of execution.
19 May 2016	Court of Appeal dismissed the application. Jabing then filed another legal application to challenge the constitutionality of the legislative amendments to the mandatory death penalty in the Penal Code and applied for a stay of execution of the death sentence so that the legal application could be heard. The High Court dismissed the application for a stay on the same day. Jabing subsequently appealed against the decision to dismiss the application for a stay.
20 May 2016	Court of Appeal dismissed the appeal. Judicial Execution of Jabing carried out.